The Rev. The Rev. Charles Vignoles, French Minister at Fortzellington.	43 18 4	-- ditto 15 April 1820	-- By the King's Letter of the 23d July 1796, Geo. 3 directed an allowance of 50 l. per annum to be placed on the Civil Establishment, to continue during pleasure, to be paid to the minister of a French episcopal chapel at Fortzellington, which is the sum recognized by the above recited Act.

To be discontinued to the incumbent of St. Paul's, on cessation of the present interest, pursuant to Treasury Letter of August 1836.
Rev. George Connor, Vicar of Castle Knock, in lieu of tithe and glebe-land in the Phoenix Park, near Dublin.	44 11 8	-- presentation to vicarage, 4 Sept. 1809.	-- During the reigns of King Charles the 1st and William 3d, the Phoenix Park was considerably enlarged, by acquisition of land in the parishes of Castle Knock, St. James, and elsewhere, to which circumstance is to be attributed the origin of the following charge: in the year 1737 a charge of 18 l. per annum was placed on the Civil List in lieu of glebe-land so taken into the Phoenix Park, and of tithe thereby lost to the vicar, in consequence of the petition of the Vicar of Castle Knock, complaining that the compensation so charged was less than that to which he was entitled. George 3, by Letter of 6 November 1779, directed an additional charge of 3 l. 1 s. to be placed on the Civil Establishment in lieu of glebe and tithes of land in the Phoenix Park, to be paid to said vicar and his successors during the pleasure of the Crown, which sum together is that recognized in the above recited Act.
Rev. Thomas Kingston, Minister of the parish of St. James, in lieu of tithe and glebe-land in the Phoenix Park, near Dublin.	10 3 8	-- induction to vicarage of St. James, 10 March 1805.	-- 12 l. per annum was placed in charge on the Civil Establishment of 1693, and since continued to be paid to the Minister of St. James, in lieu of his glebe-lands, and tithes of land taken into the Phoenix Park, which is the sum recognized by the above recited Act.
Rev. John Rowley, Rector of St. Michael's parish, in lieu of minister's money, for houses where the Courts of Justice are built.	8 15 4	-- induction to rectory of St. Michael's, dated 26 August 1809.	-- In pursuance of a petition of the Rector of New St. Michael's parish, praying compensation for the loss to him and his successors, by taking down certain houses in said parish, to make room for building the courts of justice, Geo. 3, by his Letter of 21 August 1788, directed an annual allowance of 10 l. clear of all fees and deductions, to be placed on the Civil Establishment during the pleasure of the Crown, and to be paid to the rector of said parish and to his successors for the time being, which sum is that recognized by the above recited Act.
Archbishop of Dublin, for proxies out of divers Churches belonging to the late Monasteries of St. Thomas, St. Mary and St. John of Jerusalem, in the See of Dublin.	15 16 -	patent, 22 Oct. 1831	-- When the Crown, in the reign of Henry VIII., dissolved the monasteries, and seized on their respective possessions, it became liable to the payment of the permanent charges for which such estates were answerable in the hands of the abbots and priors: it appears, from very ancient inquiries, that the Archbishop of Dublin had certain payments made to him by the monasteries of St. Thomas, St. Mary and St. John of Jerusalem, for proxies furnished by him to perform certain duties; the amounts of which have continued to be paid by the Crown to said archbishops, and is the same sum that is recognized by the above recited Act.
The Bishop of Meath, out of the manor of Trim.	2 18 -	-- from the installation of the present Bishop, Nathaniel Alexander.	-- The Bishop of Meath and his successors have from a very ancient period continued to be paid an annuity or yearly rent out of the Manor of Trim, parcel of the ancient inheritance of the Crown, and said annuity is that recognized by the above recited Act.
